3.	Travelling Art Cart by National Gallery Singapore: Portable Cinema
----	--

The school has reached out to National Gallery Singapore to bring one of its Travelling Art Carts, featuring different themes, to our students in the month of May.

Through this Art on Wheels initiative, students will be offered a glimpse of yesteryear with dioramas and paintings by prominent regional artists. This mobile museum art education station also encourages role-playing and imaginative conversations on art, history and social studies, providing a dynamic learning experience for the students.

In one of the artwork featured on the cart, Chua Mia Tee paints nationalistic and local scenes of Singapore, which serve as historical documentations of the Singapore's changing landscape (see artwork below).
